1. Key Principles

1. All data is processed securely.
2. It is updated regularly and accurately.
3. It is limited to what the Club needs.
4. It is used only for the purpose for which it is collected.
5. It is kept only as long as necessary.

2. What data do we collect?

To become an individual member of Sidmouth Running Club you provide us with your name, address, post code, telephone number, date of birth, gender, and e-mail address. To become a family member you also provide the name, gender and date of birth of each individual member. This is the only data we collect on you. For members who become coaches or run leaders, we also hold any coaching qualifications and the validity periods of the Disclosure and Barring Service checks. Bank details are not held.

3. How is it collected?

Paper membership forms or electronically via forms on the website.

4. How is it stored?

The completed paper membership forms are held securely in a locked cabinet by the Membership Secretary.

The Membership Secretary, Secretary and Treasurer all hold an electronic list of members names, telephone numbers and email addresses held in password protected files.

5. What third parties have access to your personal data?

Sidmouth Running Club does not share the personal information of any Club member with any other organisation.

HSBC – to pay any expenses, bank account details will be given to HSBC as needed. No other personal information will be shared with HSBC.

When claiming expenses you should forward your bank details separately on every occasion as they will be destroyed once the payment has cleared.

Coaches and Run Leaders. When you become a Coach or Run Leader your e-mail address is shared between yourselves for communication purposes. On leaving the Club or retiring from the role your address will be removed within a month.

6. What do we use your data for?
